CECRA Train the Trainer

Igor Hrovatič

has successfully completed the training as a trainer for performing CECRA-modules for European Rural Advisors from 01/2017 – 01/2018.

The skills-oriented training consisted of three one-week classroom-based seminars. Between these face-to-face training blocks, the participants worked on assignments in self-organised learning groups to transfer and apply the learned in concrete training sequences of their own.

The training comprised following main contents:

Seminar 1: Methodology of knowledge transfer in adult education events

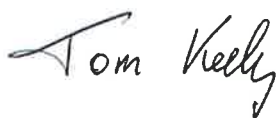

Seminar 2: Practice in planning, implementing and reflecting trainings on advisory methods

Seminar 3: Planning, performing and reflecting CECRA modules under trainer supervision
